

Architectural Digest At 100: A Century of Style

Architectural Digest At 100: A Century of Style is a lavishly illustrated volume that celebrates the magazine's 100 years of showcasing the world's most beautiful homes and interiors. With over 500 pages of stunning photography, the book traces the evolution of style from the early 20th century to the present day, featuring iconic homes by Frank Lloyd Wright, Le Corbusier, and Mies van der Rohe, as well as contemporary masterpieces by Zaha Hadid, Rem Koolhaas, and Peter Marino.

The book is divided into 10 chapters, each of which focuses on a different decade of the magazine's history. The chapters are lavishly illustrated with hundreds of photographs, many of which have never been published before. The text is written by some of the world's leading architecture and design critics, and it provides a fascinating insight into the evolution of style over the past century.
