Unveiling the Best of Milwaukee for Kids

Step into the captivating world of the Milwaukee Public Museum and embark on a journey through time and nature. Let your kids' imaginations soar at the Betty Brinn Children's Museum, where hands-on exhibits and interactive displays foster curiosity and creativity. Dive into the wonders of the Great Lakes at the Discovery World, where thrilling science demonstrations and interactive exhibits ignite a passion for exploration.

Adventure awaits at the Milwaukee County Zoo, where over 1,800 animals from around the globe await your discovery. Stroll through the serene and enchanting Mitchell Park Conservatory, a haven of lush greenery and exotic plants. Afterward, take a refreshing boat ride on the Milwaukee River, marveling at the city's architectural wonders from a unique perspective.

Beyond the City Limits: Uncover Milwaukee's Hidden Gems

Venture beyond the city center and uncover hidden gems that will captivate your kids. Just a short drive away, the Racine Zoo offers an intimate encounter with wildlife, including adorable red pandas and playful penguins. Immerse your little ones in the world of trains and transportation at the Mid-Continent Railway Museum, where towering locomotives and vintage carriages ignite their imaginations.

Head to the historic Wade House Historic Site, a living history museum that transports you back to the 1850s. Let your kids experience life on a pioneer farm, complete with costumed interpreters and hands-on activities. For a taste of outdoor adventure, explore the scenic Root River Parkway, a paved trail perfect for biking, hiking, or simply enjoying the serene beauty of the riverfront.
