Prisoner's story is a powerful reminder of the true cost of our cheap goods.

It is a call to action for all of us to demand better.

We can no longer turn a blind eye to the suffering of the men and women who are making our clothes, our furniture, and our food.

We must demand that corporations take responsibility for their human rights abuses in the supply chain.

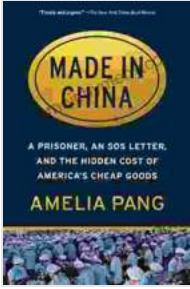

We must also demand that prison conditions be improved and that prisoners be treated with dignity and respect.

Together, we can create a world where everyone has the opportunity to live a life of freedom and dignity.
