This gastronomic odyssey takes you on a global journey, exploring the intersection of food, culture, and human connection.

Meet the Gorilla Man and the Empress of Steak

At the heart of this narrative lies David, a former gorilla keeper who left his beloved animals to become a wanderer in search of culinary enlightenment. And then there's Christine, a celebrated chef known for her mastery of steak. Their paths cross by serendipity, and together they embark on a culinary adventure around the globe.

David: The Gorilla Keeper turned Gastronomer

David's life took an unexpected turn when he left his role as a gorilla keeper at London Zoo to pursue his passion for food. He traveled the world, immersing himself in diverse culinary traditions and cultures. His experiences, both heartwarming and challenging, shaped his perspective on food and its power to connect people.

Christine: The Empress of Steak

Christine made her mark in the culinary world as a master of steak. Her unwavering dedication to sourcing the finest ingredients and grilling them to perfection earned her the title "Empress of Steak". She brings her expertise and passion to the journey, sharing her culinary secrets and insights.

Culinary Odyssey: Exploring Food and Culture

Together, David and Christine embark on a culinary odyssey that takes them across continents and cultures. They visit local markets, meet passionate food artisans, and experience traditional cooking methods. From the bustling streets of Bangkok to the vibrant villages of Morocco, their journey is a celebration of the diversity and richness of global cuisine.

Food as a Bridge between Cultures

Through their culinary adventures, David and Christine discover the extraordinary power of food to bridge cultural divides. They encounter people from all walks of life, sharing meals, stories, and laughter. Food becomes a common language, fostering understanding and connection.
