

Unveiling the Raw and Redeeming Story of "Picking Cotton": A Memoir of Injustice and Hope

Embark on a profound journey of resilience and redemption with "Picking Cotton," a compelling memoir by Deja King and Dana Wilkinson.

A Heart-Wrenching Narrative of Racial Injustice

Deja King's childhood was marred by relentless racism. Growing up in the poverty-stricken Black Belt of Alabama, she faced daily insults, threats, and discrimination. Her home was repeatedly vandalized, and her family lived in fear. Dana Wilkinson, a white woman, witnessed the horrors of racial hatred firsthand as a teacher in Alabama. Moved by Deja's plight, she established a friendship that would forever change their lives.
